Another Awful Crime Committed in Territory.

BODY SOAKED IN OIL

And Fire Set to It by Inhuman Fiends.

Oklahoma City, O. T., March 26.—The Times-Journal has the following account of a blood thirsty murder in eastern Oklahoma. It says:

"Word comes from Kookuk Falls, nine miles from the railroad on the east edge of Pottawatomie county, of a foul murder which took place there Saturday night about 9 o'clock.

"About 9 o'clock two men called at the residence of Mr. T. M. Martin, the owner of the distillery at Kookuk Falls, were called to the door by two men who asked for whiskey. Mr. Martin told them he could not sell them whiskey. He had no more than he was ordered to throw up his hands, the order being accompanied by the drawing of revolvers by the two men. Martin instead of obeying reached for his revolver, but he was too late. Both highwaymen shot almost at the same instant and Martin fell back into the house dead, his body having been pierced by a bullet and a knife.

"The bodies of the two men were taken to the house and the bodies were laid out on the floor. The bodies were then soaked in kerosene and set on fire. The bodies were then set on fire and the fire was allowed to burn until the bodies were completely consumed.

"The bodies were then set on fire and the fire was allowed to burn until the bodies were completely consumed.

Some of the fields of wheat are getting quite green and it is variously estimated that from one-third to one-half of the acreage of the wheat in this vicinity will make a good fair crop while the rest of the wheat sown last fall will be plowed under and put in other crops or left to make whatever crop it may. PROBABLY M'ATEE CASE

Horse Speed Is Called to Washington Very Suddenly.

Guthrie, O. T., March 26.—Horse Speed, the United States attorney for Oklahoma, suddenly departed for Washington early yesterday morning, being called in by the department of justice, presumably in the case now pending relative to the removal of Judge John L. McAttee. It is known that Mr. Speed stands high in the opinion of both the president and the attorney general, and was evidenced in his being called in at the time of the appointment of a governor which resulted in the choice of Tom Ferguson.

It is supposed that the opinion of Mr. Speed is again desired in this matter, which the department of justice is now considering. Whether it is to confer relative to a successor, or in regard to the direct charges against McAttee, is a matter of uncertainty, but the general belief seems to be that his opinion is desired relative to a successor. It is even stated that the place has been offered to Mr. Speed but that he would accept is not believed for an instant by his friends who know that his present position with the privilege of an outside law practice suits him exactly.

The sudden departure of the United States attorney was a general theme of discussion yesterday among the politicians but none could fathom the mystery, except to conclude that he was called regarding the McAttee case.

FIRST MINERAL CLAIM

L. J. Hamilton Proves Up a Cement Tract in New Country.

Lawton, O. T., March 26.—Business at the land office goes merrily on and Mayor McKnight and his force are kept pretty busy. Still the mayor finds a little time each day to talk to newspaper men, and said to a State Democrat reporter yesterday: "We have today proved up the first mineral claim for which a patent was issued in the new country. It is to L. J. Hamilton, of this city, for a cement claim No. 1, on section 22 and 23, township 1 north, range 8 west. It is a cement claim and is over near the east line of the county."

Mayor McKnight further stated that relinquishments are being filed at the rate of 25 to 30 daily, and homestead entries being made at once on the relinquished claims. The trial of contents is still going steadily on, and two cases were heard yesterday morning. J. C. P. Moore is now regularly installed as stenographer to take his testimony, and the way he makes his machine "talk" when a witness is testifying is a sensation.

DUEL STORY HEARD OF BY OKLAHOMANS

Clayton Slapped a Spanish Officers Face

AND WAS CHALLENGED

America's Laws Wouldn't Allow Him to Accept.

Guthrie, O. T., March 26.—Because dueling is strictly forbidden by the rules of the United States army, Lieutenant Powell Clayton Jr., the son of the ambassador to Mexico, and himself the late military attaché of the United States in the City of Mexico, was compelled to be ostracized by the influential persons of that city, and to give up his post to retire to another within the confines of the United States. That Lieutenant Clayton had been transferred to Fort Meyer, Virginia, from the City of Mexico, has been known by the reading public for several weeks, but the story connected with the affair has never before been seen in print. It became known here this week through friends of the Claytons, and there are many such in Oklahoma, formerly residents of the state of Arkansas.

Lieutenant Clayton is a typical American, and has made an enviable record in the army. He possesses the southern spirit of chivalry and bravery, and it was this trait of character that caused him the little embroilment in Mexico, although the matter will not, by any means, lessen his popularity in this country. The story of the affair, according to his friends here, is as follows:

Surrounded by a number of United States army officers, Lieutenant Clayton was discussing things in general with a party of foreign army men among whom was the military attaché of Spain. It would seem from what had happened that this Spaniard in particular had not forgiven the Americans for the little drubbing administered to the Spaniards at San Juan and Manila, for he took exception to some remark of the American attaché and concluded with the remark, so popular among Spaniards before the late war, that "the Americans are hehe."

Without stopping to think of the consequences, Lieutenant Clayton promptly knocked the Spaniard down. Of course there was a sensation, but before other damage could be done, the belligerents were separated. It was followed later, however, by a challenge from the Spaniard, to the effect that the American attaché meet him in an affair of honor in order that the Spaniard might have satisfaction for the blow given him by the American. As the rules of the United States army strictly forbid dueling, there was but one thing left for Lieutenant Clayton to do, and that was to decline. The matter became public property, with the result that Lieutenant Clayton was practically ostracized.

It went hard with the friends of Lieutenant Clayton, and they were not a few, to have him "out" on all special occasions and they required his father, the ambassador, to secure for him a transfer to some post in the United States. This was accomplished by the matter being explained to the war department and the transfer followed. The fact was made known from Washington, and it was passed up by the reading public as nothing unusual in the design, and there were changes of daily occurrence. The story of the entire affair makes of it, however, a matter of unusual interest.

It is due the reader to say that the story of this affair has been denied at Washington.

Paine's Celery Compound The Best Invigorator and Strengtheners for Old People.

Its Use Insures Freedom From the Infirmities That Come with Advancing Years.

It Bestows on the Aged a Condition of Comfort, Happiness and Peace that No Other Agency Can Give.

We should give careful attention to the physical welfare of the aged in our homes. Their chief troubles are constipation, flatulence, drowsiness, rheumatism, neuralgia and indigestion. Paine's Celery Compound is the world's best medicine for all the besetting troubles of the old. Its regulating influence on the liver, kidneys and bowels removes the disorders that come to the aged. When you are old, Paine's Celery Compound stimulates the vital powers, regulates digestion and promotes a healthy appetite. It builds you up and adds years of comfort, happiness and peace to your life.

Rev. Dr. Wm. A. Smith of Groton, Conn., one of the best known divines in southern New England, sends the following letter, that deserves careful reading: "I am now 84 years of age, and during my long life have suffered greatly from dyspepsia, torpid liver, constipation and insomnia, at times thinking I should die for want of sleep.

"By the use of several bottles of Paine's Celery Compound I have so far recovered my health as to consider myself a well man for my age. My appetite is now good, my sleep is refreshing, my liver active and bowels regular, and my crutches are not needed."

make him a cripple for life and might cause immediate death.

There are altogether 200 holds, but knowledge of half a dozen of them will enable a man to protect himself from any ordinary attack and to secure the mastery of his assailant. Once the grip is secured it is all over and there is no defense that will prove efficacious.

Prof. O'Brien learned the jiu-jitsu tricks in Nagasaki, Japan, where he was formerly an inspector of police. He has holds which can be used in all circumstances under which a man may be attacked.

The thug who grabs for the throat, the one who tries to strike or kick, even the man armed with a club can be cowed without any great display of strength by the use of the tricks, which depend on an application of well-known mechanical principles to the bones and muscles of the human body.

The elbow and shoulder joints, the neck and knees all can be easily broken if twisted in the right or rather the wrong direction. If to these twists is added the tremendous power that may be exerted by using bones as levers and fulcrums there can be but one result and the man with the knowledge of the jiu-jitsu tricks will be the winner of the contest.

ANOTHER AIR MACHINE

St. Joseph Man Claims to Have One That Is a Sure Thing.

St. Joseph, Mo., March 26.—H. W. Welton, a clerk in the auditor's office of the Burlington road in this city, and William Caldwell, a mechanic engineer, have invented an airship which they declare to be thoroughly practicable, and they expect to exhibit at the St. Louis exposition in competition for the racing prize.

The ship is to be operated on what is known as the dirigible principle. The car is surmounted by a gas cylinder 10 feet long and 40 feet high, varying in width from 25 feet at the top to eight feet at the bottom. The car is to be made of paper mache, and the lower part of the gas envelope will be supported by aluminum bands.

The envelope, the inventors say, will be capable of containing 7,500 feet of hydrogen gas, and will have a lifting power of 55,000 pounds, and travel at the rate of ninety miles an hour.

Denver, Colo., March 26.—According to a special to the Post from Cheyenne, Wyo., the execution of the stay of execution granted by the supreme court to Chas. The wires went down yesterday and fear that they might not be repaired in time to prevent the hanging of the prisoner set out last night for Casper, going by way of Grand Island and thence west over the Elkhorn. If the present storm has tied up traffic on the Elkhorn, and it is believed it has done so, there is a possibility that Sheriff Tubbs cannot be communicated with in time to stay the execution.

HE KILLED SALISBURY

And Was Given Twenty-Five Years in the Pen.

Guthrie, O. T., March 26.—Joe Runnels, who was convicted of the murder of John Salisbury in this city, through his attorney, W. A. Maurer of El Reno, has applied to the Oklahoma supreme court for a new trial. Salisbury was assistant chief of police and Runnels at the time of the killing was a member of the police force under Salisbury. Runnels was sentenced to twenty-five years in the penitentiary for manslaughter in the first degree. WORE SILK UNDERWEAR

Which Cost Her Husband $32,000 In Less Than Four Years.

Chicago, March 26.—Raymond S. Benham says his wife has spent $32,000 on silk underwear and other luxuries in the four years of their married life. He makes this statement in answer to charges of cruelty and lack of support brought against him by Mrs. Matilda C. Benham, in a suit for divorce which came up before Judge Brown yesterday. Her passion for underwear, he declares, has almost ruined him financially.

On top of this charge Mr. Benham brings others; that his wife married him not for love, but for his money; that she dined with other men; that she was intemperate in her drinking; that she denied him an invitation to his stepdaughter's wedding, although he was afterwards compelled to pay for the printed cards; that she plotted against his life, and that she taught their baby to say it did not like its father.

"The charges about the underwear is as ridiculous and crazy as his actions have been for the last two years," said Mrs. Benham almost in tears, when she heard of the charges which Benham's lawyers brought forward.

"Why, he hardly gives me and the children enough money to buy decent clothing, let alone such extravagant garments as that. We have to call in a policeman about twice a week to protect ourselves."

Mr. Benham is president of the whole sale liquor firm of Benham, Trumbull & Co., 36 LaSalle avenue. He married his present wife June 17, 1894. She was a widow with three children, and he had a grown daughter by a former wife. For the last two years, according to the children and the neighbors, his treatment of his wife and step-children with great brutality. Instead of giving her money which she spent recklessly, as he claims, they assert that he has failed to clothe the step-children properly. He had a habit of throwing glasses across the table at his wife, according to the statements of a number of Mrs. Benham's witnesses. She also has witnesses to testify that once when she did not retire at his order, making the excuse that the room in which he had been smoking was filled with smoke, he dragged her thither and proceeded to tear off her clothes. The hearing of the suit will continue tomorrow.

FRIGHTFUL

WOMAN AND CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH.

In a Prairie Fire in Their New Home in Oklahoma.

Hutchinson, Kan., March 26.—Fleeing from a prairie fire to save her life and the lives of her two children, Mrs. Jay Hand was overtaken by a terrible death. A few days ago Mrs. Hand left Nickerson for a new home in Oklahoma. Her husband, Jay Hand, son of T. F. Hand, of this county, went through by the wagon route. He arrived there and sent for his family. Mrs. Hand and her two children left for their new home by rail, and her friends were waiting for the telling of her arrival in the new home. The first word that came was a message by wire, stating that Mrs. Hand and the two children were both dead.

The full particulars of the awful affair have not been learned here. When the word was first received, it was thought that Mrs. Hand and children had been killed in a railroad wreck. It was learned yesterday evening that they were burned by a prairie fire. It appears that the men were either engaged in fighting the fire, or were away at the time, and that Mrs. Hand to escape being burned in the house, took the children and ran to seek safety. How it all occurred, how she was burned in and overtaken by the fire has not been learned.

The word was received yesterday at Partridge, where Mr. Hand's father lives, that all three were dead and would be brought there for burial. Their death was too terrible for the husband to give details in sending the sad news home.

WOMAN'S THROAT

Is her fortune if she chances to be a Patti or Albi, and that fortune is guarded day and night with the greatest care. Nothing frightens a singer so much as a cough.

Every woman ought to be afraid of a cough. It is nature's danger signal. Who does not know of some sweet woman voice silenced forever by disease which began with a slight cough.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will ensure a permanent cure of the most obstinate and lingering cough. Even when the lungs are involved, and there are hemorrhages and emaciation, "Golden Medical Discovery" is generally effective in restoring the diseased organs to sound health and strength.
